IP gas bills to drop 2.9%

Lower gas bills are predicted for a majority of Illinois Power's (IP) customers at the start of the current winter heating season. The Illinois Commerce Commission has voted to allow IP to decrease its annual gas revenues by $13.9 million or 2.9 percent.

Philip R. O'Connor, commission chairman, said, "Because of a genuine concern for customers who are having trouble meeting their heating bills, the commission accelerated the conclusion of this case by more than four months so customers could have the benefit of lowered bills early on in this heating season."

BASED ON the order, a typical residential customer using 250 therms of gas a month will see a decrease of $3.07 or 2.4 percent, with the bill dropping from $128.04 to $124.97.

IP had requested the decrease in May 1984. At that time, the company also proposed to alter its rate design.

As a result of the commission's order, IP will now decrease its tailbreak per therm charge by 2.5 cents, from 7.71 cents to 5.19 cents

(a tailbreak charge is all usage over 90 therms). This decrease will offset an approved $1 rise in IP's facilities charge. The charge will move from $7.50 to $8.50 and is based on cost studies introduced in the case which indicated that it costs the company more than $8.50 a month to serve residential customers.

AS A RESULT of this rate design change, customers using more than 129 therms a month will experience a bill decrease. Those using less than 129 therms will have a bill increase of no greater than $1 a month.

Another important result of the commission's action is that, by lowering gas rates, large industrial customers already on the system and who have the ability to switch to alternate fuels, will be given an incentive to remain as IP customers.

With these customers remaining on the system, IP will not be required to recover its fixed costs through higher rates to other customers.

Hearings were conducted in the commission's Springfield offices at various times from July through November.

Free bus rides here

From now through Christmas Eve, Bi-State bus riders in the Quad-City area will receive a special holiday present from the Bi-State Transit District, free bus rides in Madison County.

William R. Haine, chairman of the Madison County Transit District, has mailed letters to most Quad-Cityans announcing that rides on all Madison County buses are free for the 10-day period which began this Saturday. "This is our way of saying 'Thank you' to our regular riders for your continuing patronage and to those who haven't tried the bus lately, we hope you will step aboard for a free ride," Haine said.

ALL BUSES in the county are included, regardless of boarding point and destination, the letter said. This includes the McKinley Bridge (Route number 530), Pontoon Express (530X), East Granite (532), West Granite-Stockyards (535), Alton-St. Louis (via Route 203) (number 513) and others serving Alton, Collinsville, Edwardsville and Belleville.

Express service to St. Louis, Belleville and other communities also are included.

I hope you will have a joyful holiday season and please try the bus on us. For further assistance, call the Transit District office at 1-800-847-7433 or 1-624-4551. For route and schedule information, call Bi-State at 1-254-0623," Haine suggested.

The Granite City Press-Record was acquired by East Side Publications of Granite City, Ill., in the dissolution of the Gilett Corporation's newspaper operations.

The Press-Record was founded in 1932 and has been published twice weekly since 1970 by the Post Corp. Prior to being purchased by the Post Corp., the Press-Record had been published by Mr. C.E. Townsend, who became publisher in the mid-1940s.

RICHARD JARVIS, president of East Side Publications, said, "We are very excited about the acquisition of a newspaper of the quality and reputation of the Granite City Press-Record."

"We look forward to continuing the Press-Record's long-standing tradition of service to the citizens and business community in the Granite City area," Jarvis stated.

East Side Publications also publishes the Dupu Journal, Cahokia Journal, Granite City Journal and East Side Journal.

MIXUP AT INTERSECTION. Four persons were injured at 4:05 p.m. Friday in an accident on Madison Avenue. None was believed seriously hurt, but Mrs. Naomi V. Stoppotte, 78, who was entering Madison Avenue from 21st Street, was taken by ambulance across the street to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

Other drivers involved were A.C. Ware Jr., 26, of Venice, whose auto was southbound on Madison, and Laura E. Vickers, 26, of Granite City, whose vehicle was stopped on 21st Street, facing east. Ware and two passengers, Mildred Ware, 43, and Jerri Ann Ware, 19, both of Venice, sustained minor injuries.

St. Elizabeth reorganizes leadership

Sister Mary Thomas, president of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, became chairman of the SEMC governing board and Ted Eilerman, executive vice president, became president and chief executive officer in actions which became official Friday.

Sister Dorothy Kiel, chairman of the governing board until Friday, made the announcement with Sister Mary William, chairman of the holding company of the Sisters of Divine Providence. Sister Dorothy will remain on the governing board.

SISTER DOROTHY explained, "The leadership of a not-for-profit, religiously-affiliated health care corporation is a complex and all-consuming effort in today's environment. The shrinkage of the inpatient market, although good as to its reduced cost to the health care consumer, necessitates a change in direction for the survival of the not-for-profit, acute care hospital."

She explained that the multi-dimensional change requires the acute care hospital to assure that high quality alternatives to acute inpatient care are available to the community and generate new sources of revenue to provide needed dollars for the development of new services.

"The Catholic hospital must insure that such change in direction is within the mandate of religious practice, as well as the specific mission of the owning religious orders," Sister Mary William said, adding, "Therefore, it is felt that the time is right to change the responsibilities of the corporate officers."

OTHER APPOINTMENTS effective Friday include: Paul Raczkiewicz, executive vice president; Frank McGinnis, senior vice president; and Steve Hunter and Jack Grieves, vice presidents.

Sister Mary Thomas' position as chairman of the board is a fulltime post. She will preside over meetings of the board of directors and other board-level duties and will be responsible for implementing development and the adherence of the Mission Statement and hospital philosophy.

Eilerman, as president and chief executive officer, will be responsible for the medical staff and the execution of hospital business, which includes not only operation of the day-to-day business but also the long-range strategic planning, both in program and financial, and business diversification.

SISTER MARY THOMAS was first appointed president in 1982. Under her direction, the facility has grown from a small community hospital to a major medical center.

Under her leadership, the facility has developed and supported a wide variety of community programs, including the SEMC Social Work Department, Mobile Meals Program, Red Cross blood drives, chemically dependent and mental health services, the United Way, Hospice of Madison County, Immunization Clinic and a number of rehabilitation programs in areas such as physical therapy, stroke, cardiology and pulmonary.

Sister Mary Thomas commented, "The growth and continuation of the private not-for-profit health care facility depends upon the capacity of that facility to be innovative, flexible and resilient. This reorganization has been designed to meet these needs. A full-time board chairman can develop a well-informed board of directors who can, in turn, provide the necessary expertise and

Mailing of lien notices postponed till after holiday

By RACHEL NEWSOME
for the Press-Record

Due to holiday spirit, the Madison County Sanitary Sewer District for Special Service Area One voted last week to delay the mailing of lien notices until after the new year. One hundred and six consumers with delinquent accounts amounting to $35,708 will receive these notices, reported Gene Futch, sewer superintendent.

In a letter from attorney Robert Bosslet, said that Granite City resident Allen Taylor is filing a civil action suit against the district for property damage. The board suspects that Taylor has mistakenly blamed the wrong district. Because of the location of sewer lines and Taylor's property, the assumption is "practically impossible" explained Futch.

In other business, Donald C. Rea, trustee, reported that the village of Pontoon Beach might be interested in purchasing property on Route 111 from the district. No decision was made.

Approvals by the board included a redemption of $165 to Mr. E.E. Lewis for property uninhabited for a specific amount of time due to fire damage, and a refund to Willia Bunch for an overpayment.

AFTER HOURS CHARGE
Jeffrey A. Meador, 20, of 3231 Maryville Road, an employee of Hoppe's Tavern, 2907 Edwardsville Road, was charged with violating the tavern closing hours last week and five patrons at the bar were asked to leave, it was alleged. Meador was released upon posting a $32 cash bond.

FROM THE SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS TO THE S.S.T. AND BEYOND.

Somebody had to have the get up and go to get up and fly solo across the Atlantic that very first time. It was a courageous fellow named Charles Lindbergh: in 1927.

Even so, Lindbergh's pioneer flight wouldn't have had much real effect on your life if somebody else hadn't come along later with ways to do it better, safer, and a whole lot faster.

It took a special kind of drive and determination to bring this world from The Spirit of St. Louis to the S.S.T. It took a COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE. And that's our commitment at American Heritage Bank of Granite City.

See, we weren't the first folks in Granite City to offer you a complete banking relationship — from personal checking and car loans to money market deposits and IRA's. So if we seriously want your business (And we do!), we have to be seriously committed to giving you a better banking relationship. And we are!

Come put our commitment to the test, and you'll see!

Orsey charges firm with fraud

Assistant Attorney General Dennis Orsey, newly designated to operate a Granite City regional office of Illinois Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan, coordinated an investigation that led to filing of a Madison County Circuit Court suit last week against International Employment Magazine, Inc., which was based at the St. Louis Regional Airport on Terminal Drive in East Alton.

Defendants are IEM and 10 of its agents or officers. It is contended they solicited $50 to $3,000 subscription fees and offered to list in a magazine the names of persons hoping to find high-paying jobs in Egypt, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and other Mideast countries.

The magazine was never published and ceased operation in November, Hartigan said Thursday. More than 200 persons, mostly in this metropolitan area, paid fees but got no listings or jobs, he added.

"Anyone who believes he or she may have been defrauded by IEM agents may contact Asst. Atty. Gen. Orsey in Granite City at 877-0404," Hartigan reported.

The lawsuit seeks civil penalties of up to $50,000 per violation, rescinding of all contracts between consumers and the company, and restitution to all defrauded customers for violations of the Consumer Fraud and Deceptive Business Practices Act.

The suit says people were promised monthly publications, information and other services but that the defendants failed to provide them and were incapable of doing so.

IEM allegedly agreed to enter job applicants' names in AT&T computers to match them with firms that could employ them. The state asserts IEM "created the likelihood of confusion and misunderstanding" regarding IEM affiliation with AT&T and the ability to use the latter's computers. There allegedly was no affiliation.

Applicants say they were led to believe they could get jobs overseas working in construction or in egg-producing facilities.

A court order is sought allowing persons who have suffered through dealings with IEM to file for damages.

CASH, JEWELRY GONE FROM GC RESIDENCE

In a burglary at the home of Gary Hoerly, 2650 Edwards St., reported at 11:05 p.m. Sunday, a tin money box containing $300 cash, a gold necklace worth $100 and two gold wedding bands valued at $100 were taken.

Also missing from the home were a television, radio and cassette player combination valued at $700, and a wooden jewelry box containing a white gold wedding ring with a diamond worth $450, a gold chain and cameo valued at $250, assorted gold earrings worth $350, a three-strand gold necklace valued at $125, and a white gold sweetheart ring with a diamond worth $125.

FESTIVAL OF GIVING. Girl Scouts from Venice and Madison prepare baskets of food last week during their annual Festival of Giving program at the Madison Memorial Center. The baskets will be distributed to seven families in the Madison-Venice area. Girls representing troops 3, 46, 245, 302, 392, 538 in Madison and Troop 87 in Venice, all of Neighborhood Four, were treated to a surprise visit by Santa Claus and were entertained by the Madison Senior Citizen Kitchen Band. Ozone levels declining Ozone levels in Granite City declined during the 1984 fiscal year from a peak of 145 parts per billion (highest hourly concentration during 1983) to 138 ppb during FY 84 and the city exceeded the state's standards only one day during the 1984 season, a vast improvement from six days in violation during the 1983 ozone season (April 1 to Oct. 31), according to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

Monitoring at 37 stations throughout the state showed marked decreases in ozone levels in Chicago and the East St. Louis metropolitan areas from 1983, the IEPA said. Ozone levels also were generally lower in all other parts of Illinois.

THE REDUCED ozone levels may give ammunition to state officials to re-evaluate the auto emissions testing program which has been ordered for the Chicago and East St. Louis metropolitan areas.

The highest one-hour concentration recorded during the 1983 season was 172 ppb at Evanston, Ill. The record of 214 ppb was recorded in Alton in 1983. The highest concentration in the East St. Louis area during the 1984 ozone season was 146 ppb. The Evanston and Waukegan monitoring station recorded the most days, four, when level exceeded the ozone air quality standard of 120 ppb. This is a large decrease from 1983, when the Wood River station registered 13 days above the standard.

Fewer ozone health advisories were issued this season compared to 1983. An ozone advisory is issued when ozone levels reach 120 ppb and are expected to recur the next day. Only six advisories were issued in 1984, compared to 20 during 1983.

TERRY SWEITZER, manager of the Air Pollution Control Division's Data Analysis Unit, said, "Although violations of the ozone standard are still occurring, we are seeing a definite downward trend and expect the air quality to continue to improve."

Counties found exceeding the ozone standard during 1984 were Cook, Lake, Macoupin, Madison, Sangamon and St. Clair. "The ozone violations found in Macoupin and Sangamon counties are unusual occurrences," said Sweitzer, "resulting from the transport of pollutants from the St. Louis metropolitan area into Central Illinois."

"These occurrences are infrequent with the last violations found in Macoupin County in 1980 and in Sangamon in 1978. As pollutant emissions are reduced by control programs in the St. Louis area, these violations would not be expected to recur," he added.

SOME OFFICIALS already have indicated that the lower ozone levels are evidence that an auto emissions testing program for the Chicago and East St. Louis areas is unwarranted and they will try to stop the testing program before it begins.

State to study, clean up waste dumps at Depot

The Granite City Army Installation (St. Louis Area Supply Center) is one of 14 sites with waste dumps listed by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency for top state priority in research and cleanup efforts.

Three closed landfill areas on Depot property here were described Friday as causing possible contamination of ground water. More detailed inspection and investigation will be conducted by the IEPA to determine the precise extent of the problem in Granite City. A $20 million statewide program calls for monitoring and elimination of waste hazards, such as ground water infiltration, chemicals, leaks into streams, sludge, abandoned gravel pits and industrial wastes.

There is concern that the Granite City sites are contaminating water with heavy metals and nitrates. The water is reaching the Mississippi River, state records show. However, there is no effect on this region's water supply.

A total of $8 million in state appropriated funds is to be used to pay for cleanup and monitoring at the 14 sites.

Another $9 million will be used as the Illinois share of cleaning up 11 sites eligible for the federal Superfund.

Other state revenue will be utilized to seek federal assistance for 11 additional locations the state wants included on the Superfund list, including the Taracorp lead pile in Granite City.

County board to consider zoning

A request to change the zoning of an R-3 one-family residence district to an M-3 heavy-industrial district in Nameoki Township will come before the Madison County Board when that body meets Wednesday, Dec. 19.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended that the request from Brian Yocum be denied. The property is located at 1936 Third St. in East Madison.

Also to be considered Wednesday is a request by Charles Harris, Veivia Oakley and Johnnie Oakley for a special-use permit to place a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district at 110 Hare St. in Nameoki Township. The Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended that the request be granted.

A petition from Russell D. and Cynthia Godwin for a special-use permit to continue the placement of a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district at 160 Voight Place in Mitchell also has been approved by the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The Madison County Board will not consider a request for a special-use permit from Herschel Thrasher, who wants to continue the placement of a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district at 2632 Highway 3 in Venice Township. The Zoning Board of Appeals is holding the request in abeyance pending a further study of the request.

Four men are charged with prowling

Four East St. Louis men were arrested by Granite City police at 4:25 a.m. Friday, after police observed them in an open field at 18th Street and Grand Ave. All of them were charged with prowling.

ONE PERSON INJURED IN ACCIDENT ON PONTON RD.

Jackie J. Sparks, 52, of 2320 Lynch Ave., suffered minor injuries at 12:30 p.m. Thursday when her car was struck from behind.

Mrs. Sparks' car was eastbound on Pontoon Road, when she slowed down to make a left-hand turn. Her car was struck by a vehicle behind her, driven by Jeffrey W. Painter, 22, of 4038 Kathy Drive, Pontoon Beach. Painter was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident.

Police also observed a van traveling west on 18th Street about the same time. The officer got out of the car and apprehended one of the subjects, Robert Earl Bell, 28, and then called for assistance.

Two other men, Tyrone Ashford, 26, and Ricky E. Jackson, 23, were taken into custody at 17th Street and Grand Avenue.

The driver of the van, Scott Lee Johnson, 23, was identified by one of the subjects as being part of their group. Johnson was also charged with not having a valid driver's license.

Joseph A. Foster, 16, of 1937 Sken St., Madison, was injured at 3:35 p.m. Thursday when he was struck by a tractor-trailer. He was crossing the street at the intersection of Klein Street and Broadway at the time.

Percy L. Staten, 45, of East St. Louis, was the driver of the truck, which is owned by Midwest Arum. Staten said he was turning onto Klein Street when Foster walked into the left front end of the truck.

support to the administrative staff to meet the challenges that lie ahead during this health care revolution."

SISTER Mary Thomas graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in nursing from St. Louis University in 1958. She remained there to earn her master's degree in 1960. She became an assistant administrator and director of nursing at SEMC later that same year.

She currently serves on the Health Services Department of the Illinois Catholic Conference, the finance committee of the Catholic Health Association and is a fellow of the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Eilerman has served the medical center for 16 years, having joined the administrative team in 1968 as an assistant administrator. In 1974, he was appointed executive vice president.

EILERMAN is treasurer of the Illinois Hospital Association Region IV and is chairman-elect of the Metropolitan St. Louis Hospital Association, both helping coordinate the availability of health care in the region. He is past president of the Statewide Health Coordinating Committee and is active in the Southwestern Illinois Hospital Planning Council, Health Systems Association of Greater St. Louis, Illinois Catholic Health Care Association and the American College of Hospital Administrators.

He also has been active in the community as a representative of SEMC. Eilerman has been active in several organizations, including the former main offices at 20th Street and Madison Avenue, where she was employed 34 years as a receptionist.

AFTER THE SPRING firm's new general office building at 20th and State streets was constructed, she held the same job there before deciding to conclude her business career.

Simultaneously with her day-by-day employment, however, Mrs. Davis ministered to people in need. Her religious work started in October 1918 when she and her late husband, Robert Carson Davis, moved to the "behind the mill" neighborhood, an area which was populated largely by immigrants from Europe.

MRS. DAVIS DISCOVERED that because of language difficulties many of the area's residents were unable or unwilling to attend "downtown" churches.

Concerned about the religious education of the children in that small, close-knit community of mostly steel workers, she and her husband initiated Sunday afternoon Bible study sessions in their home. Six small boys and girls attended the first Sunday school in the Davis home.

Two Sundays later, the attendance had increased to 35 and, by Christmastime, a total of 175 children and young people was coming to the services. Mrs. Davis related to the reporter in 1972.

SHORTLY AFTER THAT, the Granite City Board of Education learned of the Davis mission and fostered the use of the former Liberty School on Sunday afternoons.

The school building continue to be the meeting place for 18 years, until it was decided to hold services for adults, as well as the children.

Present at the first combined service in 1936 were 12 adults and 60 youngsters.

Attendance increased so quickly, however, that the Davis' rented the Pastor Boring building, located at 20th and Omaha streets, remaining there for nearly 10 years until the Gospel Mission structure was occupied in July 1946.

The Granite City Park District is announcing the hours for ice skating during the Christmas holidays.

There will be 1 to 3:30 p.m. sessions Dec. 24, 26, 27 and 28. The hours for Sunday, Dec. 30, will be: 1 to 3:30 p.m., 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. and, for adults only from 8:30 to 11 p.m.

On New Year's Eve, the skating schedule will be 1 to 3:30 p.m. and 6 to 8:30 p.m. There will be no late session on this day.

On January 1, the ice rink will be open from 6 to 8:30 p.m. The normal ice rink hours will be followed

Funeral rites for Samuel Swearingin

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. in the traditional Christmas baskets issued by the Salvation Army to area families in need. The baskets will be distributed in the next few days, the officer advised.

Missing this year is a large quantity of canned goods, which was donated annually through a special program at the Fairmount Race Track. The gift project that produced about 60 cases of food items was not held this year, Captain Poling explained.

"We have an immediate problem as we do not have a sufficient amount of canned food to add to the baskets," he said.

Donations will be accepted at the Salvation Army Community Center, 3007 E. 23rd St., between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m., preferably today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Eilerman said, "Keeping pace with today's rapidly-changing health care delivery system without compromising this hospital's 80-year history of excellent medical care is very important. We will continue to provide a value system which recognizes human dignity, realizing the full potential of the human being."

EILERMAN received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Quincy College in Quincy, Ill., in 1963 and his master's degree in science and health care administration in 1968 from Trinity University, San Antonio, Tex.

IN ADDITION to the church school classes, Mrs. Davis also organized a series of Americanization courses, complete with lessons in English, which proved invaluable to the European immigrants living in the neighborhood and drew many from other areas of the community.

The Gospel Mission was the life work of Mrs. Davis and was a spiritual commitment, touching and influencing the lives of hundreds and hundreds of people.

For years, Vacation Bible School at the mission perennially attracted as many as 150 children and Sunday school enrollment averaged 200 youngsters also for many years.

FREQUENTLY HEARD is the comment that nearly every church in the community has members who were baptized and converted at the mission altar, or attended services at the mission at some point in their lives.

The impact of Bethel Davis' personality was felt by many who had never attended the Gospel Mission. She was an enthusiastic member of the Granite City Steel Women's Association and the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, among other organizations.

Mrs. Davis was a member for 66 years of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. She also was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

WHEN MRS. DAVIS' health became worse last February, members of her family who no longer live in this area elected to close the building, which was owned by Mrs. Davis.

The congregation has dwindled over the years, but the remaining members over 20 and 30, all expressed regret at the decision to close. Some have joined other churches, but others are continuing to meet the YMCA, where Sunday School also is held. It was learned.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Thursday through Sunday, Jan. 3 through 6.

Salvation Army needs canned goods

The Salvation Army is in urgent need of immediate donations of canned goods, Captain Lavern Poling, local commanding officer, said today.

The canned food items will be included in the traditional Christmas baskets issued by the Salvation Army to area families in need. The baskets will be distributed in the next few days, the officer advised.

Missing this year is a large quantity of canned goods, which was donated annually through a special program at the Fairmount Race Track. The gift project that produced about 60 cases of food items was not held this year, Captain Poling explained.

"We have an immediate problem as we do not have a sufficient amount of canned food to add to the baskets," he said.

Donations will be accepted at the Salvation Army Community Center, 3007 E. 23rd St., between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m., preferably today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Jeff Gray selected as P-R Athlete of the Month

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Jeff Gray is nearsighted.

This means he can't see far away objects clearly.

When he plays basketball, Gray wears glasses — all the better to see with.

Someone ought to check the prescription of those spectacles. Gray, a tri-captain for the Granite City High basketball Warriors, is one of the deadliest long range shooters in the Quad-City area and one of its top scorers.

The 6-2 Gray, a senior, was averaging just under 22 points per game before weekend action. His long distance shots had found the mark 46 of 55 times, a success rate of 48 percent.

Gray was selected to the first team of the Mt. Vernon Invitational tournament in November, and with 61 points in three games, was the tournament's second highest scorer.

Gray has always been an accurate shooter and prolific scorer, but it is his development in other phases of the game that has most impressed his coach, Don Deterding.

"He's improved," Deterding said. "He's a better defensive player. He handles the ball 100 percent better than last year. His passing has improved. His stamina has improved."

"He could always shoot," said Deterding. "But the other areas, passing and dribbling, he has really improved."

Things considered, it's no small wonder that Gray has been selected as the Granite City Press-Record's Athlete of the Month for November. Gray's selection was made by the Press-Record sports staff.

Gray was chosen from a group of Quad-City athletes who made a significant contribution to their sports teams in November. Named to an Honorable Mention list are Chris Carden of the Granite City High club ice hockey team, Reggie Banks of the Madison High basketball Trojans, Darren Wise of the Venice High basketball Red Devils, and sixth grader, Jeff Cotter. All will receive a certificate from the Press-Record designating their selections.

While Deterding lauds Gray's efforts in making himself a more complete player, there's no skirting Gray's fabulous shooting.

You might be surprised to know Gray first played basketball at six grade, and his shot then left much to be desired. "It was sort of a throw up ball," the curly-haired Gray recalls.

Currently, the Warriors have six athletes sidelined because of injuries, five of them Schmitt considers starters.

BARB WHITAKER and Vince Slecka have been sidelined from the begin-

Gray's shot developed.

BY THE way, he no longer "hopes" his shot will go in. Gray possesses what Deterding says all good shooters must have: confidence. Indeed, Gray remains unperturbed whenever a shot misses the mark, and is remarkably consistent in avoiding long stretches of misses.

"He feels he can make the next one," said Deterding. "That's the way good shooters are."

"I always think anything I shoot will go in. Always," said Gray. "When a shot goes away, 'I don't worry about it,' said Gray. 'I'll get it the next time.'"

RESIDES being blessed with confidence, Gray is close friends with another ingredient that cloaks good shooters: streaks, or as brother Joe points out, "When Jeff gets hot."

Such was the case in a game against Mascoutah last year. Gray recalled missing just twice the entire contest. He took 18 shots.

Then there was the Edwardsville game. Deterding remembered one shot in particular. "He fired one up from between 30 and 35 feet. He hit nothing but the bottom of the net," Deterding said. "When he's hot, he knows it. He'll fire it up from anywhere."

GRAY, too, recalled the shot. "I was dribbling down the floor and I didn't know how far out I was. I had been hot and there was no one around me. I went up (to shoot) and here I am 35 feet from the basket. I just gave it a little extra effort. It went in. I was surprised."

Gray, though, is remembered well for a shot he didn't make. It was in the same game.

"He missed a dunk," said Kurt Hylla. Besides being a tri-captain along with Scott Cant, Hylla is one of Gray's long-time friends.

Gray laughs. "We were up by 20 points and it (missing a shot) didn't matter that much," he said. "All my friends were in the stands. Joe stole the ball and I took off. I yelled at him to throw it at me."

Joe did. Jeff caught the ball and thought he had timed his vault toward the hoop properly. But he didn't. "I didn't get the lift," Gray said.

And he missed what was his first and, so far, only effort at a dunk. "I can do it," said a smiling Gray, who said he has dunked the ball in practice. "I just haven't done it in a game."

ORRIS CARDEN, hockey Warriors: On a team whose skaters have devastated opposing teams all season, Carden sits in the front seat.

A senior, Chris has been the Warriors most consistent scorer, chalking up goals in all but one of the Warriors eight games. He has scored two goals in three games, one goal in each of three games and four goals in a recent contest; total 13.

"His positional play has been excellent," Warrior coach Garry Henson said. "He's made good use of his scoring opportunities."

Chris has benefitted greatly from the work of his wingers, Mark Doniff (13 assists) and Matt Laub. "Between the three, they work well together," said Henson.

REGGIE BANKS, Madison basketball: One of the premier players in the Quad-City area, Banks has made good use of his considerable skills. "He's been playing very steady," Trojan coach Rodney Watson pointed out. "He's really worked hard. He's really been doing a good job."

A senior, Banks leads the Trojans in scoring with a 20-point-per-game average. Perhaps his greatest moment this season, though, was the result of his defensive tenacity. At 6-4, Banks was faced with guarding Belleville East's 7-0 Gary Leonard in a recent contest. Banks fronted Leonard while the Trojan guards pressured the East passers. "We tried to deny Leonard the ball," said Watson. It worked. Leonard was limited to just 11 shots, and the Trojans came away with a victory.

DARREN WISE, Venice basketball: It's not whether you start or not that matters, it's what you do when you get into the game. That is the philosophy of Venice Red Devil coach Clinton Harris, Jr. And Wise has ably filled the role of the Red Devils' sixth man.

A 6-2, 200-pound senior, Wise has been a leading rebounder for the Red Devils. One of his brightest moments was against archrival Madison, a contest the Red Devils won in overtime. Wise, coming off the bench, scored six points in the overtime period. All three baskets came after he collected an offensive rebound.

"That was what we needed," said Harris.

JEFF COTTER, Warrior wrestler: Wrestling in the 98-pound weight class, Cotter has made certain the Warriors have gotten off on the right path this season. Cotter, who qualified for the state playoffs last year, is 8-0 this season. He has dominated his opponents, pinning all but one of them.

"He's definitely a better wrestler than he was last year," said Warrior coach Bill "Red" Schmitt of Cotter, who has the team's best record. "Just how far he'll go this year, I don't know. But he has improved a lot over last year."

"He's the kind of kid who is very coachable. You like to have him around. If we had more like him, our wrestling fortunes would be much improved," said Schmitt. "He's a dedicated wrestler. He very rarely misses a practice unless he has a good excuse. He works hard when he gets to practice... He's always on the mat."

Winning Wrestlers

Warriors defeat Mo. state champs; now 12-0

GRANITE CITY — Ho hum. It was just another weekend for the Granite City High School wrestling team.

Just another Friday and Saturday on the mats. Another undefeated weekend.

For starters, all the Warriors did we ever get all of our injured back we're going to be pretty tough for anyone. I'm not going to say that we'll be unbeatable, but we'll give anyone a good go," Schmitt said.

Currently, the Warriors have six athletes sidelined because of injuries, five of them Schmitt considers starters.

BARB WHITAKER and Vince Slecka have been sidelined from the begin-

"This really says a lot for our kids' fortitude. With all the injuries that we've had this year, they still battled like champions. If we ever get all our injured back, we're going to be pretty tough for anyone."

Bill Schmitt
Warrior wrestling coach

Friday was extend their Southwestern Conference record to 3-0 by pounding East St. Louis Senior 61-6. That ran their dual meet record to 9-0.

Ho hum. Just another day at the office. Then, as if that wasn't enough, the Warriors won the House Springs (Mo.) Quadrangular Meet Saturday, defeating Northwest High, the Missouri state champions 128 to 111. Farmington (Mo.) High and St. Charles (Mo.) High were even farther back in the pack. They finished with 84 and 64 points respectively.

"WE'RE VERY happy with all the results," said Bill "Red" Schmitt, the Warrior wrestling coach. "We didn't go in there with our strongest lineup, but they rose to the occasion. Everyone, even those who didn't win, gave a tremendous account," Schmitt said of his Warriors.

Trailing House Springs by one point, 73-72, going into the third round of competition, the Warriors managed seven pins to run away with the title.

And, when it was over, the Warriors had four undisputed champions: Jeff Cotter, 98 pounds; Tracy Morrison, 112 pounds; Mike Lewis, 132 pounds, and Tom Sparks, 138 pounds.

THE WARRIOR sweep is their biggest victory of the season and red-just their totem at 12-0 this season.

"This really says a lot for our kids' fortitude," Schmitt said. "With all the injuries that we've had this year, they still battled like champions. If ing of the season with shoulder injuries. Whitaker wrestles at 145 pounds while Slecka will weigh in at 126 pounds.

In addition to those two seniors, senior Steve Knogl, 167 pounds, is out with a dislocated elbow. But, that's not all. Knogl's younger brother, Dave, a sophomore, is also out with a dislocated shoulder.

The list continues: Darren Singleton, the Warriors' 105 pounder, injured his back against Jerseyville last week and Tracy McElroy, the Warriors' 185 pounder, twisted both his knee and his right ankle during practice Wednesday. All but the younger Knogl are regular starters for the Warriors.

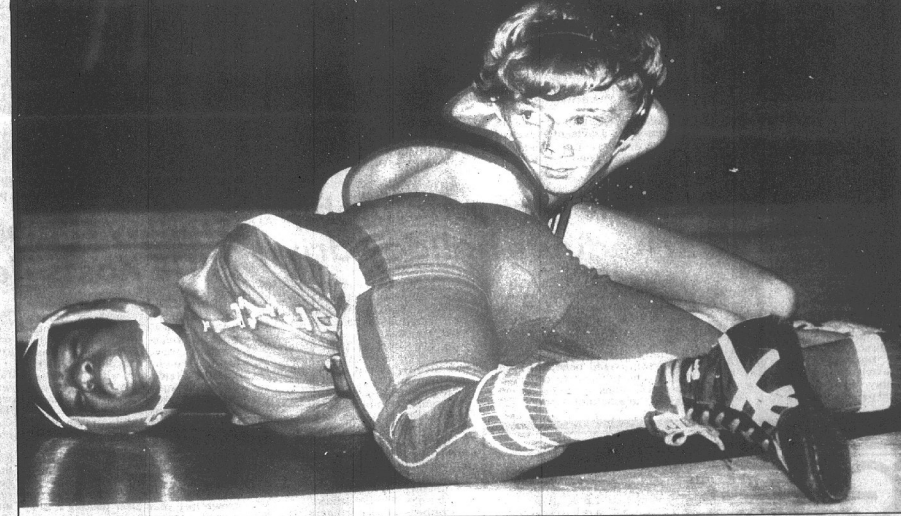

AT HOME Friday against East St. Louis, the Warriors were never really contested. The 0-8 Flyers have the desire and the coaching, but not the experience to match the Warriors.

From the start, the Warriors dominated. Jeff Cotter jumped out to a 2-0 lead over Henry Willis in 98-pound competition before he hastily ended the match with a pin at the one-minute mark.

Then, in a matter of experience over physical strength, Granite City's Richey Wilson overcame a four-point deficit in the final 30 seconds of his match to defeat the Flyers' Derek Brooks.

Trailing 10-6 at the 5:30 mark, Wilson got the break he needed.

"IN THE beginning of the match he outmuscled me. But I managed to wear him down, get the reversal and then the double arm bar. I couldn't believe it. He gave it to me. It was like he ran out of gas," Wilson said. Wilson picked up two points for the reversal and another three for a near fall to win the match 11-10.

"They're (East St. Louis) not really very strong this year, but I'm not going to take anything away from my kids. There were a lot of nice surprises tonight, particularly Wilson's."

"His was a great comeback. We thought he might have been wiped out by the guy's strength, but he hung in there and did the job," Schmitt said.

AFTER Wilson's dramatic comeback, the Warriors never looked back, winning in every weight class but one, 185 pounds.

Mike Lynch, a sophomore, wrestling for injured McElroy, battled East St. Louis' Jeffrey Patterson to a 9-2 setback before the Flyer managed to pin his Warrior counterpart at 1:39.

"It was really his first varsity experience," Schmitt said of Lynch. "He (Patterson) is a big, strong kid. We figured if Mike could survive that first period his chances of winning would be better. But as you saw that didn't happen. He got him right near the buzzer."

Whip Wood River Warriors battle to split

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

WOOD RIVER — The Granite City High basketball Warriors riding an incredible 20-point third quarter scoring blast that included 17 straight points — ravaged the Wood River Oilers Saturday here, 32-38.

The Warriors' third-quarter blitz overturned a one-point halftime deficit. While they fired away in that third period, they held Wood River to a mere six points.

You see, Warrior coach Don Deterding gave a halftime talk, and his players listened.

Listening up was Jeff Gray, a tri-captain and a shooting marksman. Listening were the Warriors other tri-captains, Kurt Hylla and Scott Cant. Listening were Joe Gray and Rich Scherling and Jerry Paul and Don Stevanus, who with the others, helped account for the Warriors' position of the 21-20 halftime score.

Before talking to his players in the then quiet of the Warrior lockerroom, Deterding might even have loosened his tie. He had something to say, and he wasn't going to be cheated.

He had been thoroughly embarrassed at what he had seen. "He would say later, 'I'm not the world's greatest coach, but I'm better than what they showed. And they are, too.'"

THEN HE talked. Only Deterding, the frustration of watching his team fail to play their best evidenced also in a 58-53 loss the previous night at Cahokia, didn't speak quietly. Did Knute Rockne stutter when talking about the Glipper?

No, Deterding yelled the words out. He yelled and he yelled so loud his voice probably would have drowned out the record player — the music "blaster" Deterding termed it — the players listened to after the win.

Deterding's words were directed to the hearts of his players. He questioned their will to win. Did they really care?

Deterding would say later, "It didn't hurt them to lose. They've lost before... If they lost, what was the difference? They've done it before. They don't realize (that) this year they're not supposed to lose."

"If I ever have to make another talk like that I'll have a heart attack... another one like that and I'll die," said Deterding, who in fact did suffer a mild heart attack several years ago, an attack which prompted him to take a three-year hiatus from coaching.

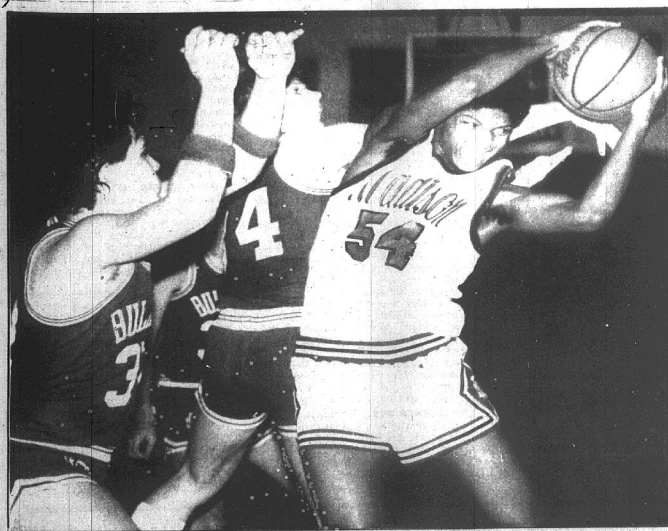

"I sweated more in that speech at halftime than they did in the first half," Deterding said. "That was as mad as I've ever been with them."

Deterding wasn't the only one who spoke at halftime in the Warrior lockerroom. When their coach had finished "talking," Jeff Gray, Hylla and Cant called the players over for another talk. They were a lot quieter, and Hylla called to attention the Press-Record — Herald basketball pool that had the Warriors tied for third in the rankings with Cahokia. "The way we played tonight," Hylla told his teammates,

Blisters St. Mary's Skaters go for No. 10 tonight

ST. LOUIS — The Granite City Warriors club hockey team could expand their win column into double figures tonight as the undefeated squad picked up their ninth win of the season Saturday, a 12-2 triumph over St. Mary's.

The Warriors will face Lindbergh at 6:30 tonight in Wilson Park, a matchup that Granite City coach Garry Henson says should prove to be exciting.

"Lindbergh is one of the better teams in the South Division," said Henson. "I think they're record is about 4-2 or 3-2, so they'll be tough."

THE WARRIORS also had things tough from the start Saturday night, as St. Mary's made it first to the scoreboard with a goal at 11:19 in the opening period. Although the Warriors had an realistic threat at losing their undefeated status, no one seemed too pessimistic.

"I wasn't worried and neither were the kids," said Henson. "In fact, I think it was a good idea for them to get on top. It let us know that someone was out to get us."

The Warriors didn't take long to strike back — just a minute and 23 seconds. Steve Stegelmeier slapped in the first goal of what became a hat trick. Dave Wilmoth and Dave Yurkovich received the assists on the play, which marked the turnaround point of the game.

STEGELMEIER's goal was the first of 12 straight for the Warriors. Matt Laub put in the 12th goal at 3:49 in the third period, giving Granite City a 12-1 lead. St. Mary's, who had come out to score first, also put in the last goal of the night with just six seconds remaining on the clock.

"We played with good control, from beginning to end," said Henson.

The game's statistics prove how correct Henson is. Granite City outshot St. Mary's 47-10.

"Something's wrong when a team loses and wouldn't have won even if they had made every one of their shots," said Henson. "Our defense played really well. We backchecked as good as in any game. When our forwards do that, it really takes a lot of pressure off the defense."

ON THE offensive side, Mark Donif and Yurkovich each had two goals. Todd Hintzner, Lee Schreiber, Chris Carden, Matt Laub and Wilmoth each scored a goal.

Tonight's game at Wilson Park will be the last contest for the Warriors before a 12-day Christmas break. Granite City will come back Dec. 29 to face DuBois and Dec. 31 to take on Webster Groves. Both games are at Affton.

Chenevert scholarship schedules holiday drive

Public response and contributions to the Matthew Steven Chenevert Memorial Scholarship Fund have been so great that plans now are to name both a boy and a girl recipient of the scholarship each spring. Initially, it was planned that the scholarship would benefit a soccer athlete who planned to attend college. Now, plans are to broaden the scope of the scholarship and to name both a boy and a girl. Thus far, the scholarship fund totals $1,775. The interest earned on that amount each year would be divided and given to each recipient.

As beneficial as the scholarship will be to Granite City High students and athletes, plans are to make it even bigger.

So, for the week remaining before Christmas, organizers plan to have scholarship donation drive which will both generate revenue for the fund and yield gifts to those who wish to donate. Persons may donate whatever they wish.

Persons wishing to contribute to the fund will have the opportunity to receive one of many prizes.

Numbers of the winners will be drawn on Sunday, Dec. 23, and will appear in the following Monday's Press-Record.

Persons wishing to contribute to the scholarship fund may do so by calling 451-4846.

Win 73-50 Madison blasts St. Anthony's

By JAMES BLASINGAME of the Press-Record

MADISON — While watching their junior varsity team receive a 111-42 thrashing at the hands of Madison's jayvee squad on Friday night, the St. Anthony varsity Bulldogs had to be wondering just what they were in for.

The Trojans' merciless full-court press was eating the junior Bulldogs alive, and the quicker, bigger and better Madison players were waiting in the wings.

Well, when the varsity contest began, the Bulldogs' wondering stopped, and the worrying started. The defensive pressure that had destroyed St. Anthony's jayvee team was effective in hounding the varsity.

IN THE end the score wasn't as lopsided, but the outcome was the same as the Trojans prevailed 73-50.

"We haven't played against this kind of quickness before," said St. Anthony coach Les Stevens. "We had a lot of turnover trouble. We can play half-court with anybody, we just need to take a little better care of the ball."

Taking care of the ball was difficult with Madison's press. Reggie Banks, Deloy Williams and Anthony Valentine swarmed over St. Anthony's ball handlers in the back court, forcing turnovers and deflecting passes. For the Bulldogs, it was like bringing the ball up against three cat-quick octopuses.

"WE MOVED some bigger people (Banks and Williams) up front on the press," Madison coach Rodney Watson said. "I thought they worked really well together."

"Our goal at halftime (Trojans led 38-20) was to hold them under 40 points, so I'm a little disappointed there. We got a little careless in the third quarter, and they started to beat our press."

St. Anthony may have gotten the ball past the Trojans on a couple of occasions during the third period, but Madison was always in control. The Trojans jumped out to an early lead. Nathan Young was on target with a pair of long-range bombs. Valentine canned two 12-foot jumpers. Banks hit a turnaround in the lane, and Madison went out in front 16-3. The Trojans led 20-6 at the end of the first quarter, 38-20 at the half, and 52-32 at the end of the third quarter.

WATSON credited his team's guard play and in particular, the guards' shooting, as important factors in the contest.

"We showed a lot more confidence tonight. Our guards showed more leadership on offense and on defense," said Watson. "We got 32 points out of two guards — that really helps take the pressure off our inside people."

"To beat a zone, you have to beat it from 15 to 20 feet. We knew we had good shooters. They just had to work their way out of a slump. Being at home and shooting on your own rims makes a difference," Watson said.

ACCORDING to Stevens, St. Anthony followed its game plan, but the Trojans were simply too much for the Bulldogs to handle.

"We did basically what we wanted to do — bottle things up in the middle and make them shoot outside," said Stevens. "They got out to a hot start, and that was the ball game. We did a better job of rebounding in the second half, but we just haven't got the horses."

"Madison's going to be hard to beat. They're an excellent ball club."

The Trojans upped their record to 4-2 after their win over St. Anthony. Madison returns to action Friday night when they host Wellston High School of St. Louis. Game time is 6:15.

Win 102-46 'Devils' runaway from Trojans

VENICE — For the second weekend in a row, the Venice Red Devils defeated the Trojans. But the games were as different as night and day.

The Red Devils kept their undefeated status and displayed their muscle Friday night, blasting the Worden Trojans 102-46. Just one week earlier, Venice had to come from behind to gain a two-point overtime victory over the Madison Trojans.

Despite the difference in the talent of the opponents, Venice coach Clinton Harris said no one is overlooked.

"WE DON'T take any team lightly," said Harris. "Worden may be one of the weaker teams, but we don't look past anyone. We wanted to run our offense and do all the basics."

Our fast break was really looking good."

All nine Venice players made it to the scoreboard. Sophomore Jesse Hall topped all scorers, racking up 23 points. Victor Jackson followed with 14, while Charles Milton, Damon Harris and junior Eric Owens each put in 12.

Darren Wise and Ed Ware each scored eight for the Red Devils. Lawrence Banks and Lawrence Wigfall each put in five and Martin Cooper rounded out the score with two points.

THE TROJANS appeared doomed from the start, as Venice jumped to a 32-12 lead. But things only got worse for the visitors, as Venice upped their lead to 58-27 at half.

It became so good for the Red Devils in the third quarter, when they jumped out to 84-33 lead, that Harris substituted his starting lineup for the remainder of the game.

"The Red Devils' next challenge will be Tuesday in a conference battle at St. Paul."

"They're a good team," said Harris about St. Paul. "I haven't seen them play yet, but I'm sure they'll be a factor."

Venice will play in the Freeburg-Columbia Holiday Tournament, where they'll play the Marissa Meteors in a 1 p.m. game Dec. 26. The Red Devils are seeded third, behind West Side High School of Memphis, Tenn., and McKinley of St. Louis.

Stanley Eligible Tuesday SIUE hosts defending nat'l champs

EDWARDSVILLE — The basketball Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville continue what is being described as the toughest schedule in the 17-year history of men's basketball at SIUE, Tuesday, (Dec. 18) when they host the defending NCAA Division II national champions from Central Missouri State University.

The game, scheduled to tip-off at 7:30 p.m., will be a rematch of SIUE's third game of the season, when CMSU broke up a two-point game with seven minutes to play and went to post a 55-39 victory.

The Mules, who won the NCAA-II crown last year after posting a 29-3 record, entered last Saturday's game against Graceland College with a perfect 30 record this season. They also feature the longest winning streak in the country, having won their last 23 games since Jan. 25, 1984.

The Cougars, who played Southeast Missouri State University, Friday in Cape Girardeau, started out their rebuilding season with a 1-6 record.

It wasn't a good contest for the Cougars as the Indians went on the warpath, eventually winning and wiping out the Cougars 101-64. Through their first seven games, the Cougars have faced teams with a combined record of 20-5.

Heading into last weekend's action, six of seven teams the Cougars have played (Davis & Elkins' record not available) have a combined record of 34-5, which includes three undefeated teams, Central Missouri (8-0), Lewis University (7-0) and Lincoln University (7-0).

Following Tuesday's game against the Mules, the Cougars hit the road for a Dec. 19 battle against NCAA-I power Indiana State University-Terre Haute. From Terre Haute, the Cougars travel to Owensboro, Ky. for the two-day, four-team Kentucky Wesleyan University Tournament.

The Cougars are scheduled to open the Kentucky Wesleyan Tournament against the best Panthers, a team which reached the "final four" of the NCAA-II Tournament last year.

There is one bright spot for the Cougars, however. Kenny Stanley, the 6-foot 2-inch sophomore who starred at Madison High School, is expected to join the Cougar staff for Tuesday's contest with Central Missouri.

Described as an outstanding all-around athlete, Stanley graduated from MHS in 1980 and became a member of one of the best junior college basketball programs in the country at Vincennes University Junior College.

In his only season at Vincennes, Stanley started five games, scoring in double-figures each time, and posting a career-high 23 points against Cincinnati Area Junior College.

As a high school player, Stanley led the Trojans to the 1977 Illinois State championship, averaging 17 points per game. He was also selected as a member of the Illinois Hall of Fame team and to the Illinois basketball Coaches Association All-Star game in Peoria.

GCHS Boosters meet Tuesday

Granite City High School's Booster Club will hold its monthly meeting this Tuesday, Dec. 18, in the school cafeteria.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., the meeting is open to parents of all students of Granite City High School.

Discussion will include plans for a February Chicken and Beer Dance fund raiser.

Wrestlers

rior victory really isn't too surprising.

The Warriors have, without a question, the most experienced varsity coaching staff in Schmitt and assistant Walt Whitaker. Schmitt has 35 years experience and Whitaker has been coaching for nearly as long.

But aside from even the Warriors' advantage of coaching experience, the Warriors have the benefit of "feeder" programs in both the junior high and grade school levels.

Both Coolidge and Grigby Junior High Schools have wrestling programs, which lay an important foundation for the high school program.

IN ADDITION, Granite City has various wrestling clubs affiliated with the schools — which begin instruction with children as young as six.

"That's the difference between us and them," said Flyer coach Willis Jackson, who himself was a pupil of Whitaker's in 1963 at Cahokia.

Cagers

"We shouldn't be ranked anywhere."

It didn't matter the Warriors had taken so long in the halftime they didn't have time to warm up before beginning play in the third quarter.

"We were fired up," said Schierling. FOR SURE, it was a different warrior team the third quarter. Then it was said that Dr. Jeckyl was a friendlier sort than Mr. Hyde, too.

The Warriors stole the ball, they blocked Olier shots, and their shots found nothing but the soft bottom of the net. They were downright rude to their hosts, or as Olier coach Greg Moats pointed out, "They didn't change anything, other than bombs away."

It was Jeff Gray who started off the bombing with a short jumper. Then it was Hylla with a basket. Then came the steals: three in a row. Hylla was on the receiving end of one for a basket. Jeff Gray swatted the ball out of the hands of an Olier and drove for another shot, but it was Jeff's brother, Joe, who picked the pocket of an Olier for another steal and another score. Cant followed with a basket, then it was Jeff's brother, Joe, who stole the ball. Enter Jeff Gray, who tossed in another basket, this one from long range.

Joe Gray came up with another steal and another layup basket. In their 17-straight-point stretch, the Warriors used up five minutes and 26 seconds of the clock before Wood River's Don Stimac broke the scoring string with a bucket.

But the Warriors' still were scoring. Stevanus scored on a basket and a free throw, and Jeff Gray followed with three straight baskets. In between, Hylla had collected another Warrior steal and Stevanus had blocked another shot.

THE WARRIORS' 26-6 third quarter edge put them ahead 46-27 going into the final period, and lifted their record to 1-3. Wood River fell to 1-4.

Jeff Gray led the scoring with 21 points (10 out of 20 from the field). Cant followed with 10. Stevanus collected eight and Hylla and Joe Gray chipped in with four points apiece.

And a third quarter to remember. Beware Southwestern Conference.

"You've got to do everything in your power to win," Deterding said. "That's the way they played in the third quarter."

"We are capable of playing that way," said Deterding. "We could be a very good basketball team, but everyone's got to come ready to play. Everyone's got a job to do."

"I think their pride came out in the third quarter... I don't know if we can sustain that all year. But that is how we can play."

AGAINST Cahokia the night before, the Warriors held a 24-17 lead late in the second quarter, and things looked promising. "I remember looking at the clock. There were 41 seconds up there. I thought, 'Boy, we'll nurse the ball and go for one last shot,'" said Deterding.

But that's not what happened. A few mental errors worked against the Warriors. Cahokia scored the last six points to pull to within one point at the half.

"If anything beat us, it was that," said Deterding.

THE WARRIORS, who were paced by Jeff Gray and Cant with 20 and 10 points, respectively, maintained their one-point lead through the third quarter (38-37), but were down against a talented Comanche team, who were led by Matt Luster with 21 points.

"I learned a lot about wrestling from Coach Whitaker. He's a good coach who taught me what it takes to win. Unfortunately, though, this team (East St. Louis) doesn't seem to want to put the effort needed to be winners," Willis said with a tone of disappointment in his voice.

"We have 3½ hour practices each night to try to make up for junior high programs we don't have. Some think that's too much so they quit. Wrestling six minutes (in competition) is the easy part if you're going to be a champion. The real work, the part that makes a champion, comes during practice," Jackson said.

ASSESSING his team, Jackson termed the Flyer program not as rebuilding, but as rebirth. "We're a lot different from the team which won the Cahokia Regional last year. We started this season with a team whose varsity experience totaled less than 50 bouts."

The Warriors are off until Wednesday when they travel to Triad to take on Bethalto, O'Fallon and Triad. Action begins at 5:30 p.m.

Friday, the Warriors will have their biggest Southwestern Conference test thus far this season as they travel to Belleville West to take on the Maroons. Action begins at 6:30 p.m.

The junior varsity Warriors fared better. They scored a 61-59 victory over Cahokia's Jayvee. A Tom Taylor basket in the final seconds was the difference. They Jayvee Warriors also blistered Wood River, 63-32, to hike their season record to 3-1.

The Warriors picked up a new player over the weekend. Jeb Blasingame returned to the team. He had had a leg injury. Blasingame scored two points against Wood River, and provided a "hit" to the squad with his play, said Deterding.

The Warriors huge victory Saturday came despite a powerful eight for 20 shooting from the free throw line.

Sports of all Sorts A sporty Christmas gift

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

Here's a suggestion for my women readers to solve their problem of buying the sports in their lives a Christmas gift.

If they are sports fans, that is. And, high school basketball fans, in particular: gals, buy that special gift in your life a copy of Jim Enright's "March Madness," "the story of High School basketball in Illinois."

My copy was priced at $8.95, but will probably cost you a little more now. Order by writing:

"March Madness"
"The Story of High School Basketball in Illinois"
Illinois High School Association
Bloomington, Illinois
Arthur: Jim Enright

A copy of March Madness, loaned me by former SIU-Edwardsville basket player, Roy Withoff, who played for Harry Gallatin and Jim Dudley and is now an employee of Central Hardware in Granite City, has been a great help to me in both writing this column and working up many of my Old Times feature stories.

Just recently, Joe Fedora, the man responsible for student athletic and physical education programs at all schools in the Community Unit School District No. 9, talked to me and told me of some interesting information relative to Granite City High's sports programs down through the years.

Granite City High played its first basketball game in a two-game season way back in 1906. Both games, which were lost, were played on a court out of doors.

Things improved dramatically the following (1907) campaign as the Granite City High cagers upped their record to 4-1. That season the action moved indoors but the gym still had a dirt floor.

Two seasons, 1910 and 1911, saw Granite City post perfect records as it won 18 and lost none those years. According to Fedora, whose information was gleaned from "Year Books" of the years cited, no coaches were given.

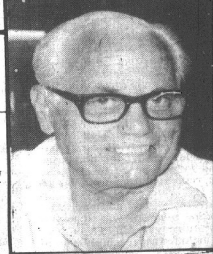

The two seasons of 1909 and 1910 produced a real oddity: a combined 15-21 record for their pair of campaigns. How the "tie game" came about, no hint or explanation was offered in the year books.

Clyde Parr, whose Granite City High teams in 1913 and 1914 posted a combined 16-3 record, was the first coach listed.

The first Illinois state basketball tournament was played (1908) in the Oak Park, Ill., Y.M.C.A. gym. Peoria High defeated Rock Island, 48-29, in that inaugural tourney.

Lewis Ormer, athletic director at Oak Park, originated the idea for the state tournament. Thirteen schools were invited instead of qualified for the meet.

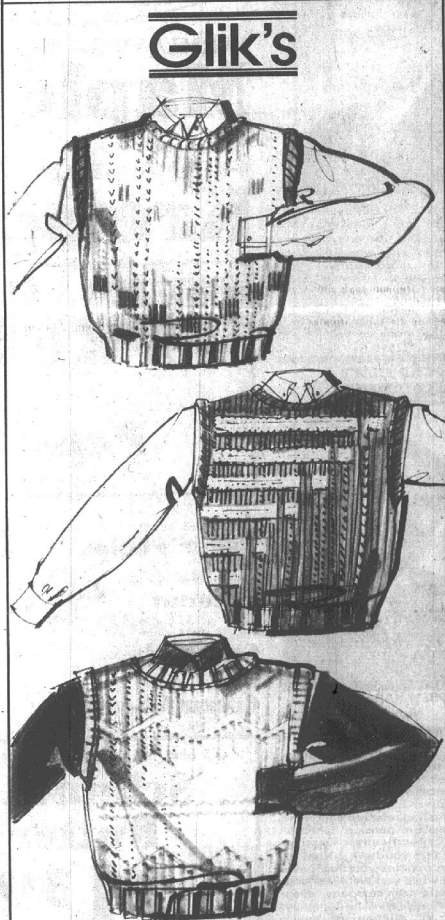

Southwestern Illinois high school

Vernon '15, Pekin '15, Peoria Central '16, Peoria '10, Quincy '22, Rockford '12, Rock Island '11, Springfield High School '20, and, of course, Collinsville has made it to the state finals more than Granite City High. Just 17. That's not bad.

Pontoon attorney feels insulted, quits

By SUSANNE INDELICATO
of the Press-Record

A disgusted Robert Hennessey resigned from his post as Pontoon Beach village attorney last week, noting that a recent action of the board was "an insult" to him and his office. Hennessey has held the post since May of 1977.

Upon the reading of Hennessey's letter of resignation, the village board of trustees unanimously accepted the resignation, effective Dec. 17.

HENNESSEY'S ACTION was in response to board action Nov. 27. The trustees had instructed Village Clerk Mary Warren to send Hennessey a letter advising him to attend all village board meetings or send a representative from his office.

Hennessey's resignation letter stated that when he was appointed village attorney on May 17, 1977, his duties included representation of the village in legal proceedings, providing legal advice, prosecution and defense for the village in litigation, and attendance at one meeting per month. Hennessey wrote, that to his knowledge, there had been no modification of that agreement.

"The action of the board on Nov. 27, 1984, is an effort to unilaterally change an existing agreement, which is not only contrary to law, but also an insult to the office of village attorney and to me as an individual," Hennessey's letter stated.

FOLLOWING THE meeting, Hennessey said his resignation had nothing to do with differences with the board as a whole, but "possibly" had something to do with differences with individual village board members.

Hennessey said the resignation was not due to his additional duties as a new assistant state's attorney for Madison County. Hennessey also is an assistant city attorney for the Granite City Council and an attorney for the Metro-East Sanitary District. Pontoon Beach Trustee Donald C. Rea, who has expressed differences with Hennessey at past meetings, commented, "Mr. Hennessey is going to be missed. He's a very able attorney. It's unfortunate that his career and increasing workload prevent him from serving the village. We've had some differences of opinion, but there was never a question of his integrity."

REA SAID Hennessey's letter of resignation "was no shocker," and that board members already had begun interviewing other attorneys for the position of village attorney. Trustee Louis Whitsell told the Press-Record that Hennessey had informed Pontoon Beach officials of his intent to resign the day after he received the letter advising him to attend all village meetings.

"I have every respect for Bob Hennessey. He's a good attorney, but I do want someone at the meetings," Whitsell said.

PONTOON BEACH Village Board President Glen Wilson commented, "I'd like to say that I haven't been in my position very long, but my dealings with Bob have always been favorable. This isn't my doing. He feels he wants out."

DREW KARANDJOFF
PRESIDENT
GRANITE CITY TRUST

Q: Would you explain what the word "vesting" or "vested" means in relation to pensions or pension funds?

A: Vesting refers to your right or interest in pension benefits. More specifically, vesting means that you have a right to pension benefits you may have earned while you were working for a particular company, even if you should leave the company (either by quitting or being fired) before your normal retirement age. For example, if you, at age 54, have worked for the same company for 16 years, then leave to accept a better job, you may be vested in your pension rights so that when you reach age 65, you'll be able to collect some pension money from that company, even though you hadn't worked there for 10 or 11 years. Vesting requirements and benefits do vary from company to company, however, depending upon the firm's specific pension plan. Because vesting rights do exist, it is an extremely good idea to become familiar with your company's plan.

Christmas carol story is told

The stories behind the Christmas Carols was the program presented by Marilyn Lumpkins at the recent meeting of Precursor Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

The word "carol" is derived from "carola," a ring dance. During the 17th century, people would dance outside the churches because they were not allowed to sing inside. As they danced or (caroled), they would make up tunes and words that told a story, she explained.

"Deck the Halls," a popular secular carol, is based on an old Welsh melody and the words tell of popular holiday customs. "The First Noel" is linked to both England and France, and the word "noel" is perhaps from the Latin words meaning "news" or "birthday."

"We Three Kings" is an American carol and considered modern in terms of carols, being written in 1857. It is one of the few carols based on the story of the Wise Men mentioned in Matthew 2:1-12. Miss Lumpkins added.

The business meeting was conducted by president, Linda Koenig. B. J. Jones reminded everyone of the upcoming Christmas party at The Den and Barbara Hente discussed a list of needs for the Alpha Center for Women, one of the group's service projects.

The next meeting will be Jan. 14th in the home of Marilyn Lumpkins. Others attending were Carol Cathey, Vicki Barth, Kathy Kennerly, Joan Pritchard, and Carolyn Walsh.

CORNS

Corns are actually protective growths of thickened skin over areas where repeated pressure and friction occur. This pressure may be exerted from outside the foot from ill-fitting footwear or irregularities in shoes or hose. Likewise, the cause may arise from inside the foot from bony prominences or faulty foot function and structure. Corns may be located on the top of, in between, or at the end of the toes. They may occur singly or involve several toes. They may be extremely painful or painless.

The treatment of corns varies according to their cause and degree of discomfort. A corn which makes shoes difficult to wear obviously requires more aggressive treatment than one which causes no trouble.

If the corn can be attributed to a single pair or type of shoe then simply avoiding that shoe can be the solution. Mild to moderate corns; that is, ones occurring no more than once or twice a year may be successfully treated conservatively. However, there are those corns which persist to be painful even after frequent trimming and padding. For these corns, there are easy and painless methods which can eliminate these corns permanently by those foot specialists trained to do so.

Richard Harper will be the instructor. He is a small business consultant in St. Louis. His works include financial accounting, location analysis, and operational and market analysis for entrepreneurs.

HARPER HAS a master's degree in business administration from the University of Miami. He ran his own small business for three years between high school and college and has worked in several small family businesses.

Registration for the class is under way. Students may register from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays and from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Fridays at the main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road, Belleville.

BAC slates cooking class

For Jim Gisondi, teaching Authentic Italian Cuisine at Belleville Area College's O'Fallon extension center, is a chance to pass on to others what his parents passed on to him.

"I learned how to cook at home in New York from my parents and grandparents," he said. "They ran a small tavern-restaurant and did all the cooking for it."

NOW, GISONDI passes that heritage on to his students. Just as he learned by cooking and tasting dishes in his parents' kitchen, he teaches his class by cooking and tasting. "We start with two or three recipes a night and eat them that night," he said. "If we make homemade pasta, that takes longer and the students take that home and prepare it."

The lecture portion of the class is an informal lecture on the techniques and goods being used mixed with stories from Gisondi's cooking experiences.

Those include running his own restaurant in Belleville for awhile. He was in the Air Force base when he met his wife, a Belleville native.

AFTER GETTING out of the military, he and his brother opened their own restaurant in Belleville. The venture did well, but closed when his brother moved back to New York to get married.

Gisondi started teaching at BAC in 1978. "I've always taught people how to cook, large or small groups," he said. "I wanted to do a class at BAC, so I just walked in and asked them if I could. They said yes and I've been doing it ever since."

Gisondi's class will be offered at BAC's O'Fallon extension center this spring semester. The class will meet from 7 to 9:45 p.m. Thursdays at O'Fallon High School.

FOR MORE information, students may call BAC/O'Fallon coordinator Carl Veach, 1-632-6470 (home) or 1-632-3507 (office).

Dr. Mak teaches in China

Dr. P.T. Mak, coordinator for Belleville Area College's Aviation Maintenance Technology program, recently returned from the People's Republic of China where he was training airplane mechanics for their government.

"I trained a special group of students," Mak said. These students were handpicked from airlines, mostly in Peking and Shanghai. They were picked because of their experience and English skills.

"I TAUGHT THEM the basics. I couldn't really go into things in too much depth in just a month. The government would like me to come back to do some more training."

SIUE report writing class slated

The Center for Management Studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will offer a six-week course on report writing for people interested in improving their supervisory management skills.

Beginning Jan. 8, class sessions will meet in Room 3102 of Classroom Building II on Tuesdays from 6:30 until 9:30 p.m.

PARTICIPANTS in the course will study reports common to industrial situations, sentence structure, fundamentals of writing, and matters dealing with the impact of written communication.

"Report Writing" is sixth in a series of 10 courses comprising the Supervisory Management Development Program. Upcoming courses include: Feb. 19, "Accounting and Finance for Non-Financial Managers," April 2, "Managing Time and Tasks," May 14, "Problem-solving and Team Building," and June 25, "Issues in Productivity."

Eight courses are required in order to receive a supervisory management certificate. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the SIUE Center for Management Studies by calling 1-692-2668.

THE INTENSIVE one-year program runs classes eight hours a day, five days a week. At the end of the coursework, students are ready to take the Federal Aviation Administration exam for mechanics.

"CAMPUS SOLITUDE" is the name of Diana Kinder's first-place entry in a photography contest sponsored by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Mrs. Kinder of 17 Del Rio Ave. is majoring in art and design with an emphasis in photography at SIUE. She already has a bachelor of science degree in English. Mrs. Kinder, who has her own darkroom and learned photography "on her own," entered the contest as part of a class assignment. She was awarded $200, and her photograph will be enlarged, framed and displayed in the University Center. She is married to attorney Bill Kinder of Granite City.

Christmas is a good time for job hunting

"It's the season to be job hunting. That's a piece of advice from a Southern Illinois University-Carbondale career counselor who says the yuletide is a good time of year to mount a job search."

"December is when companies do a lot of interviewing and hiring," said Michael C. Murray, a placement counselor at SIUE's Career Planning and Placement Center.

MURRAY SAYS prospective employers tend to be more receptive to job applicants and "looser about hiring" during the holiday season. "It's the season of giving," he said, "and employers get into the mood along with everybody else."

"Large companies, he said, often gear up in December and January for a surge of job applications, many of which are from college students home for the holidays. "Employers are aware that students are on break this time of year, and they prepare accordingly," Murray said. "This also paves the way for other job hunters."

And except for retailers and other service industries, employers generally have more time to conduct interviews during the holiday season. In December, corporations and government offices often take time to unwind and reflect on accomplishments of the past year, Murray said. "It's a prime time to get the proverbial foot in the door and make some contacts," he said.

HE TELLS college seniors to arrange at least five interviews for the holiday break. "It only stands to reason that the more you interview, the better your chances are of getting the position you want," he said.

"Even if a student won't graduate until May, we tell him or her to get out there early and get a feel for the market."

Murray advises job hunters to spend time scouting employment opportunities in newspapers, trade publications and placement manuals. "The local library is one of the best places to begin a job search," he said.

HERE ARE SOME other tips Murray tells job seekers to keep in mind: "Get a name. Letters addressed to 'Sir or Madam' will get you nowhere. Call the company or organization and ask someone how to apply for a position, and whom to contact. Make sure the name is correctly spelled and pronounced for you."

Get in touch. Once you have your target's name, call directly. If the job is still open, try to arrange an interview. If the job has been filled, ask for advice on how to break into the field or request names of other people who might be hiring. "It never hurts to ask," Murray said.

BE CONFIDENT and sell yourself. "First impressions are lasting impressions," he said.

BE PREPARED. Know your resume backward and forward. Know what you're going to say to the interviewer and be prepared to answer probing questions. Murray tells clients to practice interviewing with a friend or relative beforehand. "Nothing turns off an employer more than a person who is unprepared," he said.

Tell the truth. Lying on a resume may help get an interview and may even help land a job, but down the road the lie can backfire. "BE ON TIME, even a bit early. It shows you're responsible and eager to work."

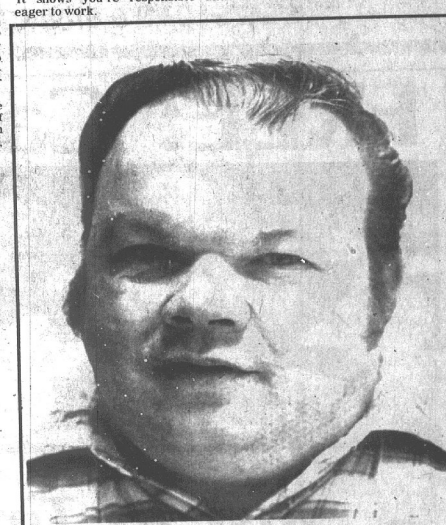

Dress conservatively. Murray recommends dark, plain business suits for both men and women.

Leave the cigarettes and gum at home. Even if the interviewer indulges, it's best to refrain from smoking or gum chewing altogether.

LOOK THE interviewer in the eyes. It will appear that you're interested and sincere.

Don't give up. Murray says the worst thing job hunters can do is to throw in the towel after a few rejections. "It's important to realize that you haven't been personally rejected, just turned away at the gate," Murray said.

I believe anyone who is motivated and really wants to work can find a job provided they follow a few guidelines. "You've got to make it happen, and there's no better time to start than now."

"Granite City Center offers all the subjects I need. The faculty seem to bend over backwards to help you. It's near my home and the rates are reasonable."

Former residents invent non-metallic earring posts

An allergic reaction to metals can present a special problem to a woman with pierced ears. Tina Cuvar of Bunker Hill, and formerly of Granite City, can attest to that. Even though many women who suffer allergic reactions to metal use 24-carat gold earrings to relieve the itching, pain and bleeding, Mrs. Cuvar couldn't do that because she is allergic to 24-carat gold.

Because of that, she and her husband, Bob, came up with an idea for plastic-backed earrings. "She had the idea in 1981," Cuvar relates. "We then went to the library and searched back 20 years and found nothing like it (earring posts made of plastic)."

The Cuvars now have a patent pending on their new invention and are actively marketing the product in Madison and Macoupin counties. The earrings are available in approximately 30 stores and businesses, including Leander Department Store at 19th and State streets, Connie's Beauty Salon at 3875 Lake Drive in Pontoon Beach, Prime Cut Hair Salon at 2540 Washington Ave. and Magic Touch Hair Salon, 4 Nameeki Village Shopping Center.

Cuvar, who is a carpenter, designed the plastic post and found it to be more flexible and comfortable for the wearer.

The posts are manufactured by Tabor Plastics in St. Louis, while the front part of the earring, or findings, are manufactured in Rhode Island, New Mexico and New York. Cuvar says he is negotiating with overseas suppliers for new designs, and he designs some of the findings himself. The earrings sell for an average price of $4.

The Cuvars call their distributorship "TLC," which is Mrs. Cuvar's initials.

She eagerly promotes the earrings as an alternative for women who are allergic to metals. "I'm a licensed cosmetologist. I've been in skin care for 10 years, and I can tell you that the term 'hypo-allergenic' is used loosely. The buyer should beware, because surgical steel is not hypo-allergenic."

"There are people who can't afford 24-carat gold earrings," she continued. "With these, you get the same benefits as 24-carat gold. But we do not claim 'hypo-allergenic.' We claim no metal allergy."

Cuvar adds, "We're getting testimonials we haven't even asked for from ladies who haven't worn earrings in 20 years. I'm going to say that 50 percent of the population has trouble with a body reaction to metals."

CASH IS MISSING

A total of $730 was stolen from Ken's Lounge, 1539 E. 20th St., it was reported early Thursday by the owner, Kenneth Archer. A portion of the missing money was from the sale of lottery tickets, he said.

THROWING THE SWITCH. The official Christmas tree of Granite City, in the lobby of the city hall, is lighted last week during a brief ceremony which preceded the singing of Christmas carols. Helping to light this year's tree are, left to right, Ed Dorris, John Borbas, who donated the tree to the city, Mayor Paul Schuler and Mike Thayer. Dorris and Thayer are clients of Specialized Services here.

Group brings yule joy to detention home

By JIM WOODCOCK

The confines of the Madison County Detention Home are bleak, and Christmas can be a dismal time for the young people incarcerated there.

But there is a group in Madison County that takes the time to extend a hand to the detainees.

That's why members of Madison County Corrections for Christ Ministry were at the detention home in Edwardsville last week.

THEIR GOAL was to brighten the spirits of the 21 young offenders living there.

At first, Christmas cheer was sparse in the detention home's activity room. There was a tree, some scattered decorations and seven stockings that were hung with duct tape over the fireplace.

But once members of the Madison County Corrections for Christ Ministry started to arrive, the hallways were full of festive residents peeking out of their tiny rooms.

The visit seemed to work. Some inmates who were struck and residents politely listened to a set by the Harvest Gospel Band from Granite City. Later, residents were treated to snacks brought by the group.

THE GROUP will be back later this month to present some gifts. It will be the same for the larger population at the Pere Marquette Boys Home in Grafton, and prisoners in the county jail can expect fruit, gospel literature and Christmas carols from the group in the coming weeks.

"It's good-time fellowship," Ernie Cochran, says. "They're incarcerated, they look lonely, so it's an opportunity for us to do what we can for them. We want to give them a Christian witness and tell them of the love of Jesus."

The ministry is made up of 35 active members of many religious affiliations, and it hopes to grow. Most members, like Cochran, are laymen.

THE GROUP routinely provides two prayer services each week at the detention home, Pere Marquette and the county jail. The sole purpose of the group is to provide ministry to those who are incarcerated.

Cochran admitted that some may question the effectiveness of the group. Even in the detention home, the group has to relate to repeat criminal offenders, some who have violent histories.

"But really, they are very receptive," Cochran said. "Anyone who has seen our group work has been favorably inclined. At first we did think there would be little or no interest from those we try to reach, but we've found there is a hunger for a spiritual feeling."

CHARLES GILMORE, a Collinsville resident, is 65 years old and retired. Gilmore said he realized one day that the detention home residents might be able to benefit from his past experiences in life.

So Gilmore joined the ministry after meeting Cochran, and found he was right.

"You have to get their attention with some of the kids, but I usually find something they can relate with," Gilmore said. "They usually get the message that it's not that great of a thing to be one of the boys, to go stealing and so forth."

"I'm grateful for my life, and now I'm directing all of it toward saving these kids."

SOME OF the detention home residents carried pocket bibles and some of the first-time relationships with ministry members they had taken a liking to during previous visits.

Cochran said his group's association with prisoners at the county jail is also very friendly. The ministry's jail services are very popular.

"For those who don't find it enjoyable, many times there's evidence of peer pressure," Cochran said. "If one person takes a negative view of what we do, that may influence others. That's the same at the detention home and jail. But those who see us over a period of time know we mean to do only good."

MINISTRY members say they have also learned something about themselves when they get together for their visits.

"We're all from different religions, but what's beautiful is we've found all religions can work together," Cochran said.

The Harvest Gospel Band opened up with an inspirational number called "He Has Made Me Glad." When the band later asked who was feeling glad, the detention home residents in the audience all raised their hands.

The band jokingly apologized for not being Led Zeppelin, but sincerely asked the residents to ponder the songs and to consider the ministry's message.

FLAG PRESENTATION. Members of Brownie Troop 688 at Wilson School display a flag presented to the troop by Americanism Chairman Betty Wilkins of Quad-City Amvets Auxiliary Post 51. Each scout and leader also received an Amvets flag etiquette book. Members of Troop 688 are, from the left in the bottom row, Kelly Ridgeway, Julie Novosel, Donna Parrish, Beth Butkovich, Shannon Sparks and Stacey Brimm. Middle row, Jamie Snelson, Angela Briggs, Lynn Thomas, Gwen Roy, Melissa Coy and Erin Cain. Top row, co-leader Judy Novosel, leader Joan Butkovich and co-leader Debbie Coy.

DONATION. A $500 contribution for the Salvation Army Tree of Lights is presented on behalf of the Amvets Auxiliary Post 204, Madison, by Dal Maxwell, left, and Mrs. Evadene Gravielle, auxiliary president, to Captain Linda Poling and Captain Lavern Poling.

Labor pack reached with state employees

The state has signed a labor agreement with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) covering more than 12,500 state technical and professional employees.

"This agreement is generally in line with the master contract negotiated with AFSCME last year on behalf of some 26,000 state employees," Thompson said. "This contract also will expire on June 30, 1986, the same time as the master contract. With this action, we have completed negotiations with all groups represented by the unions involved in state government until mid-1986."

The contract, overwhelmingly approved recently by members of the two units, affects 9,752 human service and technical employees in nearly all agencies and some 2,900 professional employees, including doctors, nuclear engineers, social workers and educators.

It differs from the master contract in a few areas, including additional arbitration and productivity provisions. The first-year cost of the agreement will be $19 million, while the second-year cost will be about $23.2 million. That will represent a pay raise of 4.76 percent for most employees of those units during this fiscal year, retroactive to July 1, 1984. A five percent increase is scheduled for Fiscal Year 1986, which begins July 1, 1985.

There currently are 46,000 state employees working under union agreements through the collective bargaining process.

BURGULARS GET $900

Board of Review hopes to complete hearings by Friday

By JIM WOODCOCK

Madison County Board of Review Chairman Robert Harris said hearings on tax objections are three months ahead of last year's pace, a sign that the tax cycle is getting back on track.

Harris told the county tax cycle committee last week that the Board of Review has targeted Friday, Dec. 21, as the final day to hear tax objections. By that time, the three-member panel will have increased the number of hearings per day to 90.

"WE'LL BE going to 90 to complete the cycle, to get it as much on track as possible," Harris said. "Of course, we won't be done with our work once the hearings are complete. But we should be done with everything by mid-January."

Harris said that means all township assessors should have their tentative multipliers not long after that. Last year, tentative multipliers were not issued until June.

The Board of Review already has completed hearings for 13 townships. Harris said tentative multipliers for those townships should be ready for publication by Jan. 1.

TOWNSHIP multipliers are applied so the county may receive a multiplier of 1.0 from the Illinois Department of Revenue. A multiplier of 1.0 from the state means property is not over or under assessed.

When the multiplier from the state is received, the county clerk's office can proceed with extension of taxes, followed by the mailing of property tax bills. This year, the property tax bills were mailed more than four months late.

Harris said the Board of Review currently is hearing tax objections from Chouteau, Helvetia, Olive, Alton, Wood River and Collinsville townships. He said the final hearings scheduled are from Collinsville Township.

ONCE THE tentative multipliers from those townships are published,

Harris said the cycle will truly begin to move. Harris said the new full-time status of the Board of Review is the major reason the county tax cycle is ahead of last year.

The county board approved a full-time Board of Review in August. The Board of Review — Harris, Shirley Voegelé and Fred Finck — has spent most of its time hearing tax objections.

Harris said that as of one week ago today, the board has listened to 5,108 tax objections.

HARRIS SAID information on farm assessments may be a bit behind because of some data problems.

Harris noted the Board of Review has to convert farm data from the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission into productivity index figures to determine assessments.

"We're having a slight problem there that might affect some townships with a lot of farms," Harris said. "We may have to create separate books for the farms."

IN ANOTHER matter, county treasurer Michael "Mick" Henkhaus told the tax cycle committee that $22.25 million has been distributed thus far to the county's various taxing districts from the 1984 property tax.

The 1984 bills were not mailed until September, and were not due until Nov. 26.

Man has 2 accidents after fight

A Granite City man was charged with battery, criminal trespass to property, two counts of leaving the scene of an accident and failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident Thursday night after he fled from the scene of a fight.

Michael Lee Bowman, 18, of Rural Route One, was arrested at 8:05 p.m. by Granite City police.

Pursuit of Bowman occurred after police took a report of a subject who had punched an employee at Pantera's Pizza, 1535 Johnson Road. Thomas Hartman, owner of Pantera's, told police that Bowman entered the kitchen area of the restaurant through an employee only entrance and struck employee Brent McKenney several times in the face with his fists.

Hartman told police that Bowman left the parking lot in a reckless manner, driving a green pickup truck. While policemen were taking the information, they were advised that a green pickup was involved in two hit-and-run accidents and the subject had been stopped by police.

Apparently after leaving Pantera's, Bowman drove down Wilson Park Lane, where his truck collided with a car parked in front of 101 Wilson Park Lane. The car is owned by Cindy Cation of 1709 Delmar Ave.

Bowman did not stop after the accident and two witnesses followed him.

THE LAW TODAY
BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Last week this column discussed uninsured motorist coverage. This type of coverage in an automobile insurance policy becomes significant when there is an accident and the driver at fault has no insurance. In this case, the victim will need to look to his own car insurance policy for compensation. It was noted that no automobile policy is issued in this state unless uninsured motorist coverage is included.

What happens, however, if there is an accident and the driver at fault has no insurance, but not enough to adequately compensate the person injured? In this case, the person who is hurt can provide for underinsured coverage in his own policy. Since July 1, 1983, any automobile policy offered for sale in Illinois shall also include an offer of underinsured coverage.

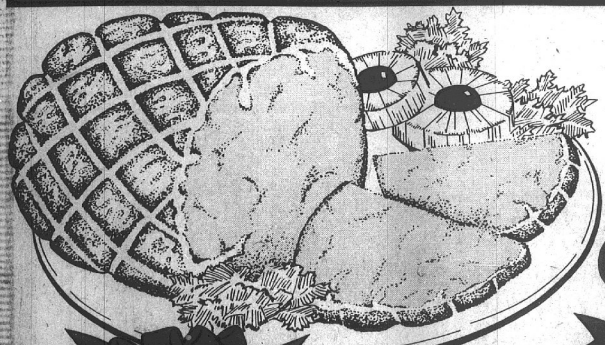

For example, let us assume that Driver B is injured by Driver A and sustains $500,000.00 in damages. If Driver A has liability insurance in the amount of $300,000.00, this would normally be the limit which could be recovered by Driver B. However, if Driver B had underinsured coverage under his own policy to a limit of $500,000.00, he could recover the difference between $500,000.00 and $300,000.00 under his own policy.

In a 1983 case, the Plaintiff was injured as a passenger in a car driven by an uninsured driver. According to the facts of this case, the uninsured driver's car was struck by a car driven by a person with liability coverage of only $25,000.00. The Plaintiff here suffered severe brain damage and required multiple surgeries. He recovered $25,000.00 from the driver of the first car and also recovered $75,000.00 under his own uninsured coverage. He then attempted to recover under his underinsured clause, and the insurance company sought to deny payment. The court held that the insurance company was underinsured coverage as he can afford, in that a large percentage of drivers in this area are without insurance, these coverages are necessary to adequately protect the driver in the event of personal injury. If the driver at fault is without adequate protection, it may be necessary for the injured party to look to his own insurance policy to provide coverage.

In light of these recent Legislative enactments, the recommendation of this office is that an automobile policyholder obtain as much uninsured and underinsured coverage as he can afford, in that a large percentage of drivers in this area are without insurance, these coverages are necessary

RETURN WITH US TO...

KITTY KEENE

LONG BEFORE THE WOMEN'S MOVEMENT JELLED IN THE U.S., RADIOS KITTY KEENE MANAGED TO CARVE OUT A CAREER GENERALLY LIMITED TO MEN. THE BEAUTIFUL FEMALE WAS A PRIVATE EYE! ACTRESSES BEVERLY YOUNGER, GAIL HENSHAW AND FRAN CARLON ALL PLAYED THE TITLE ROLE DURING THE PROGRAM'S RUN FROM 1937 TO 1941 IN A SOAP OPERA FORMAT. THE BROADCAST ORIGINATED FROM CHICAGO.

KITTY'S PAST WAS A MYSTERY. SHE REFUSED TO DISCUSS IT EVEN WITH HER DAUGHTER JILL. IN FACT, SHE SPENT MOST OF HER TIME DEALING WITH THE PROBLEMS OF JILL AND HER HUSBAND BOB JONES.

THE PROGRAM'S THEME WAS A HEART-RENDING VERSION OF TCHAIKOVSKY'S "NONE BUT THE LONELY HEART". JANET LOGAN PLAYED JILL, AND BOB BAILEY PLAYED BOB JONES.

THE LADY DETECTIVE'S AGENCY WAS SIMPLY KITTY KEENE, INCORPORATED

HMM... NOW HOW WOULD SAM SPADE HANDLE THIS CASE?
